

My family and I are very pleased with Indiana's "No Call Law." Since we registered we have been able to have peaceful evening meals without interruptions. We urge you to give our privacy in the respect we ask for and do NOT allow telephone marketers or any other type of solicitors the freedom to enter our home via the phone lines.

thank you for making the law stricter, if you have to do anything at all.